A blind jump to a place unknown
Wake me up, turn me on, it's time to fight
Prepare, the threat follows our scent of defense
Find a way to escape alive
What is this land unknown
So full of life but no soul
The silence echoes
What is this land unknown
Oh no, we're not alone
They drop from the sky
The war goes on
Crush their aggression
They shall not flank us
Paint the ground with their blood
Unite
(Life, but no soul)
What is this land unknown
So full of life but no soul
The silence echoes
What is this land unknown
