

Burn Into Darkness, Ch. 3: Night's Resolve

© 2022 Mechanization | www.mechanization.us

Within the night we creep upon
Through darkness we emerge without warn
Perched on the ledge, I focus my eyes
Just one more breath till they drop
Bring on the fight
Search for the captive
We must regain what we lost
The night begets resolve
Into the sky I soar without wings
A flash of light up unto the siege
Liberate our brothers
Liberate our blood
Clear a path to leave this maze into the night
Free from confinement
No cell will hold our souls
The night begets resolve
