

Burn Into Darkness, Ch. 5: Frozen Descent

© 2022 Mechanization | www.mechanization.us

Beneath the surface, we come upon narrows
A journey through metal and stone
Where does this passage go
Down and down into a frozen hole
A gateway to unending cold
No path of death will stop my assault for control
They desecrate the virgin snow
This labyrinth goes another step below
Across the frozen pond through tunnels, chasms and halls
Gain entrance through the wall
This is a full assault for control
