My soul appears beneath the sun
What shall befall us
Are we the chosen ones
What is the meaning of life
We spawn to death without a breath or a chance to run
Valley of hollow stained red with blood
Grave to bodies and pride killed one-by-one
From base to base without a hope
When does it end
How long will this go on
Both red and blue, we charge again without a clue
The canyon calls for another victim
But I will not fall
Valley of hollow stained red with blood
Grave to bodies and pride killed one-by-one
Valley of hollow stained red with blood
Grave to bodies and pride struck down one-by-one
