Oh, I see it
Turn the page and see the way
Oh, I hear it
Listen to the words I say
Oh, I breathe it
Breath, this space will fill you in your empty place
Oh, I love this

I will show you the way
So pull out your books
And turn the page and
Start to read, cuz metal's free

Verse 1, the chapter of a metal dream
Kill off all the pop music celebrities
Purify the earth of these commercial things
Stop corruption, cleanse our society

You, won't, ever blame me
You, know, the way it's gotta be
Deep inside your heart the metal's beckoning
All you've gotta do is set the dragon free

I lit the fire, of your desire
You shall transpire, metal is higher
I found the book of heavy metal
It takes me where I want to go
Come take it to the next level
I know you'll rise up from below

Verse 2, from this dominating view
Uprising from this heavy metal crew
You, know, the reality
This, is, metal alchemy
Our soul reveals true identity
Free yourself, embrace the new mentality

I lit the fire, of your desire
You shall transpire, metal is higher
I found the book of heavy metal
It takes me where I want to go
Come take it to the next level

I know you'll rise up from below

The dream, alive, liberate inside
Strength, collides, all of you shall rise, yeah
Let's go
Go, forth, and show the way
Life is, what you create
Grab, the, sword of lightning
Lead, all, to what we bring, yeah

I will show you the way
So pull out your books
And turn the page and
Start to read, cuz metal's free

Last verse, the verse to change history
Metal soldiers rose and now hold the key
Unlock the gate to your destiny
Eternal bliss becomes your reality
Of, what, you, breathe and bleed
This, is, your, final, peace

I lit the fire, of your desire
You shall transpire, metal is higher
I found the book of heavy metal
It takes me where I want to go
Come take it to the next level
I know you'll rise up from down below

Let's go

I found the book of heavy metal
It takes me where I want to go
Come take it to the next level
I know you'll rise up from below

I found the book of heavy metal
It takes me where I want to go
Come take it to the next level
I know you'll rise up from below
