Oh, Untouchable

Weightless, no suffering
For I lost the time
Nameless, no enemies
Cuz I feel like I'm full of light

I can sleep tonight
No one left to fight

Safe in my inner peace
For I'm one with all
Madness surrounding me
But it can't break my resolve

I can sleep tonight

Endless infinity
For my sight has changed
Impervious, nothing stops me
And I will never be the same

I can sleep tonight

No more hollow
