Enter the Emperor
Stand and face what they know
Look in the mutant's eye
He traveled far to seek truth
The cross of space and time shall set the stage for this fight
The clash of dark and light, will wrong prevail or will right
Look in the eye and you will see the black of their soul
The space they bend will come to end if the spice doesn't flow
The Bene Gesserit, a power that's unknown
Mother Superior will listen in to your soul
A son born to rule presents a threat to their cause
The witch instructs her aids to seek the truth upon one
The cross of space and time shall set the stage for this fight
The clash of dark and light... will wrong prevail or will right
Look in the eye and you will see the black of their soul
The space they bend will come to end if the spice doesn't flow
So much death, is there hope?
Two houses feuding by design
It's all for their control
Look in the eye to see the end
Look into space, a war shall soon begin
