

Ch. 5: From Life to Bondage

Our lives are under attack
The rush of death is black
The house upon us
The faceless threat
The fallen guard is gone and never coming back
Sabotage...
From life to bondage
We're outnumbered but we fight
They came in darkness of night
Is this the start?
Is this the end?
We face a certain death, but we shall defend
They put a gag upon my mouth
They robbed me of my control
You must find the power
You must use your voice
To free us from the hate and make a world of our choice
Bound and gagged...
From life to bondage
