

Two To One

I can't decide
Should I kill this life
Where is my mind
Why is hell so wide
Why can't I get unstuck
What the fuck is love
We bury what we know
We live within our flaws
I try and try
But I cannot hide
For every time I cannot find my mind
Where the fuck is the sun
Why am I so numb
What the fuck is this hate
I'll go from two to one
Call upon the darkness of your soul
Drip the blood of the wasted on your floor
The serpent lies
It knows you want inside
You fight and fight, but it takes your sight
What the fuck is love
It's a hole you want
A drop will change it all
The hook prevents its fall
Call upon the darkness of your soul
Drip the blood of the wasted on your floor
End another soul
