

Burn In The Fire

You feel the desire
You feel without real love
You walk on the fire
You walk alone I know
You will walk alone
You can't stop the prison you make (no)
I curse to hell your maker's mistake (you)
Never will you undo
Never will your life go back
Everything you touch is black and blue
You will rot alone
You can't stop the prison you make (no)
I curse to hell your maker's mistake
I pray for the life you sucked away
I to hope god you burn in pain
Burn in the fire
You will burn I know
Never can you undo
Everything you touch turns black
Every piece of me hates you
Burn in the fire
Burn in the fire right now
