Born into this pain for an unknown cause... die in the chair
All is well except for this fucking flaw... my suffering
Take a breath to feel the blood dripping down... and swallow it
Choke on fate while I hear the torture sound
Please make them die
I drink the blood a foot from the ground
I wish for death to take them now
I hate the pain but I'm not afraid
I just want it all to go away
Take my arm and put it into my veins... take me under Another year and it's the fucking same... all over
Cover me and lead me into a fog... my one escape
Memory won't leave me without a cause
I can't let go
I drink the blood a foot from the ground
I wish for death to take them now
I hate the pain but i'm not afraid
I just want it all to go away right now
No God will undo
No God will undo
Old stories of none
But now is my fate
The day replicates
The pain culminates
The hate elevates
No God will undo
No God will undo
